MORE ABOUT A LITTLE GIRL NAMED THERESE

This is another story about Therese Martin, the little girl who became a saint—Saint Therese of the Child Jesus. Here she is with her four beautiful sisters.

ONE DAY when Mrs. Martin was putting Therese to bed, she kissed her baby and said, "Um, um, um! I love you, my darling baby. I love you so much, I could eat you up."

"Mamma loves baby!" said little Therese. "But God loves you more than Mamma does," said Mrs. Martin. "God loves you more than your mother, and more than your father, and more than all your sisters love you."

ONE MORNING just before she dressed little Therese, Mrs. Martin showed her how to talk to God. She said: "Fold your hands first. Then God knows you are going to tell Him something, and He listens."

THERESE liked to talk to God all day long. Sometimes she even talked to God when she could not fold her hands because they were busy doing things. This picture shows Therese talking to God when she was picking flowers.

What do you think she said to God?

THERESE talked to God when she went fishing with her father.

What do you think she said to God then?

THERESE had a dog. His name was Tom. She used to race around the garden with him. She even tried to ride on him, but she was too big, and he was too small. Sometimes when she was playing, she would stop a minute and talk to God. She knew God is everywhere. We can talk to Him any place and any time.
