For Sister Dominic Mary, OP
Your friendship, your example, your wit and your prayers are a gift to me and to the world.
I know you will keep the young readers of this book in your heart as you get ready for prayer each day!

Katie

For Sister Dominic Mary,
with gratitude for you,
your friendship, your prayers,
and your beautiful vocation. I miss you!

The sun has yet to rise,
but Sister Clare and her fellow Dominican sisters are already awake and preparing for a day of work and prayer...

Hello there! I'm Sister Clare. What's your name?

What a beautiful name! God loves to call us by name. When I became a sister, I took a new name to signal the beginning of my new mission in the religious life.

Have you ever been inside of a convent? You haven't? Well, I live here at this convent as a cloistered Dominican nun, and I would love to show you around.

If you're ready, whisper, "I'm ready, Sister!"

Why are we whispering,
you ask?

Because the life of a contemplative nun is very quiet. Silence makes it easier to reflect on God's Word
and spend time with Him
in our hearts.
