Monks shovel.
Monks hum.
Monks watch winter weather come.

Father Abbot sees black smoke,
grabs his heavy winter cloak.

Monks watch.
Monks warm.

Monks don't mind
approaching storm.

On a hill above the prairie,
stands Archangel Monastery.

Monks wake.
Monks pray.

Monks thank God
for this new day

The Monks Make Amends

by Sylvia Dorham

illustrated by

Monks work.

Monks play.

Monks stay busy every day.

REFECTORY

Father Abbott keeps an eye
on every monk as he walks by.

Monks are restless.
Monks glare.
Monks are frowning during prayer.

Father Abbot wonders why.
Leaves his place and starts to pry.

Monks fuss.
Monks make a scene.
Monks say things they know are mean.
